MASSACHUSETTS MINIMUM WAGE

Massachusetts Wage & Hour Laws

State law requires all employers to post this notice at the workplace in a location where it can easily be read. M.G.L. Chapter 151, Section 16; 454 C.M.R. 27.07(1)

M.G.L. Chapter 151, Sections 1, 2, 2A, and 7

M.G.L. Chapter 151, Section 15

M.G.L. Chapter 149, Section 148; 454 C.M.R. 27.05

Minimum Wage

Beginning January 1, 2023, the minimum wage in Massachusetts is $15/hour. In Massachusetts, all workers are presumed to be employees. The minimum wage applies to all employees, except:

 agricultural workers ($8.00 per hour is the minimum wage for most agricultural workers),

MASSACHUSETTS

- members of a religious order,
- workers being trained in certain educational, nonprofit, or religious
- organizations, and
- outside salespeople.

M.G.L. Chapter 149, Section 152A; M.G.L. Chapter 151, Section 7 Beginning January 1, 2023, the service rate in Massachusetts is $6.75/hour. The hourly "service rate" applies to workers who provide services to customers and who make more than $20 a month in tips.

The average hourly tips, plus the hourly service rate paid to the worker must add up to the minimum wage per each shift.

Employers, owners and employees with managerial or supervisory responsibilities on a given day must never take any of your tips. Tips and service charges listed on a bill must be given only to wait staff, service bartenders, or other service employees. Tip pooling is allowed only for wait staff, service bartenders, and other service employees.

Overtime

Generally, employees who work more than 40 hours in any week must be paid overtime. Overtime pay is at least 1.5 x the regular rate of pay for each hour worked over 40 hours in a week.

For some employees who get paid the "service rate," the overtime rate is 1.5 x every 12 months for their: the basic minimum wage, not the service rate.

Exception: Under state law, some jobs and workplaces are exempt from overtime. For a complete list of overtime exemptions, visit www.mass.gov/ago/fairlabor or call the Attorney General's Fair Labor Division at (617) 727-3465.

Payment of Wages

The law says when, what, and how employees must be paid. An employee's pay (or wages) includes payment for all hours worked, including tips, earned vacation pay, promised holiday pay, and earned commissions that are definitely determined, due and payable.

Hourly employees must be paid every week or every other week (bi-weekly). The deadline to pay is 6 or 7 days after the pay period ends, depending on how many days an employee worked during one calendar week.

Employees who quit must be paid in full on the next regular payday or by the first Saturday after they quit (if there is no regular payday). Employees who are fired or laid off must be paid in full on their last day of work.

Paystub Information

All employees must get a statement, at no cost, with their pay that says the name of the employer and employee, the date of payment (month, day, and year), the number of hours worked during the pay period, the hourly rate, and all deductions or increases made during the pay period.

Eligible employees may use their sick leave if they or their child, spouse, parent, or spouse's parent is sick, injured, or has a routine medical appointment. They may also use sick leave for themselves or their child to address the effects of domestic violence

Unless it is an emergency, employees must notify the employer before using sick leave.

Employees who miss more than 3 days in a row may need to provide their employer a doctor's note.

Paid Sick Leave

Employers with 11 or more employees must provide paid sick leave. Employers with fewer than 11 employees must provide sick leave; however, it does not need to be paid.

Employers Must Not Discriminate M.G.L. Chapter 149, Section 105A; M.G.L. Chapter 151B, Section 4 Subject to certain limited exceptions, employers must not pay one employee less for doing the same or comparable work as another employee of a different gender.

They must not discriminate in hiring, pay or other compensation, or other terms of employment based on a person's:

<ul> <li>Race or color</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>Sexual orientation or gender</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>Religion, national origin, or ancestry</li> </ul>	identity or expression

Pay Deductions

An employer cannot deduct money from an employee's pay unless the law Public Works and Public Construction Workers M.G.L. Chapter 149, Section 26-27H allows it (such as state and federal income taxes), or the employee asked for a deduction to be made for the employee's own benefit (such as to put money aside in the employee's savings account).

An employer cannot take money from an employee's pay for the employer's ordinary business costs (for example: supplies, materials or tools needed for the employee's job). An employer who requires an employee to buy or rent a uniform must refund the actual costs to the employee.

The law also puts limits on when and how much money an employer can take from an employee's pay for housing and meals the employer gives to the employee.

Hours Worked

Hours worked or "working time" includes all time that an employee must be on duty at the employer's worksite or other location, and works before or after the normal shift to complete the work.

Meal Breaks

Most employees who work more than 6 hours must get a 30-minute meal break. During their meal break, employees must be free of all duties and free to leave the workplace. If, at the request of the employer, an employee agrees to work or stay at the workplace during the meal break, the employee must get paid for that time.

Payroll Records

Payroll records must include the employee's name, address, job/occupation, amount paid each pay period, and hours worked (each day and week). Employers must keep payroll records for 3 years. Employees have the right to see their own payroll records at reasonable times and places.
