

OFLA - OREGON FAMILY LEAVE ACT

You can take time off for pregnancy disability, bereavement or to provide home care for your child under the Oregon Family Leave Act (OFLA).

- ▶ This time is protected, but often unpaid unless you have vacation, sick, or other paid leave available. However, while on OFLA leave, your employer must let you use any vacation, sick, or other paid leave you have accrued. OFLA leaves are separate from Paid Leave Oregon benefits.
 - ▶ OFLA applies to employers with 25 or more employees.
 - ▶ To be eligible, you must have worked an average of 25 hours per week for 180 days. A separation from employment or removal from the schedule for up to 180 days does not count against eligibility. (During a public health emergency, eligibility starts at just 30 days working 25 or more hours per week.)
 - ▶ You can take up to a total of 12 weeks of time off per year for any of these reasons.
 - ▶ Providing care to your child related to an illness, injury or conditions that requires home care or when your child's school or child care provider is closed as a result of a public health emergency.
 - ▶ Bereavement (up to up to two weeks) for the death of an individual related by blood or affinity.
 - ▶ Through 2024, you can also take up to two additional weeks for the legal process required for foster child placement or adoption.
 - ▶ Pregnancy disability leave In addition to leave for the other reasons listed here, you can take up to 12 additional weeks of time off per year for pregnancy disability before or after the birth of child or for prenatal care.
- ▶ Your employer must keep giving you the same health insurance benefits as when you are working. When you come back you must be returned to your former job or a similar position if your old job no longer exists.
- ▶ Military family leave (up to 14 days) is also available if your spouse is a service member who has been called to active duty or is on leave from active duty.

NOTICE TO AGRICULTURAL WORKERS

- In general, agricultural workers must be paid at least the minimum wage. The rate depends on where you work. There are some limited exceptions to minimum wage for agricultural workers
- Effective January 1, 2023, agricultural workers also earn overtime for hours worked over 55 in a work week (over 48 in a workweek beginning January 1, 2025).
- For each 8-hour work shift, you get two 10 minute paid rest breaks (15 minutes if you are under 18) and one 30 minute unpaid meal break free from work responsibilities
- If you are terminated as a seasonal farmworker, you must be paid immediately (or by noon on the following day if the harvest season has ended and you are living in a farmworker labor camp owned by your employer at no cost until wages are paid). If you quit with less than 48 hours' notice, you must be paid within 48 hours or on the next scheduled payday, whichever is first.
- Minors under 18 years of age may work in non-hazardous farm jobs outside of school hours. Minors 14 through 17 years of age who operate power driven farm machinery or ride in or on machinery must obtain a certificate of training and the employer must obtain an employment certificate. Employers must obtain a permit to employ minors under the age of 14.

BREAKS & OVERTIME

Your employer is required to give you breaks where you have no work responsibilities. There are specific rules about overtime pay and paychecks.

BREAKS & MEALS

- ▶ For each 8 hour work shift you get these breaks free from work responsibilities:
 - ▶ Two 10 minute paid rest breaks (15 minutes if you are under 18)
 - ▶ One 30 minute unpaid meal break (generally during the two hours after your third hour of work)

- ▶ You also get reasonable breaks as needed to express milk (and a private space that is not a bathroom to pump) until your child reaches 18 months of age.
- ▶ If your shift is longer or shorter than 8 hours, refer to the chart here or visit oregon.gov/boli/workers/Pages/meals-and-breaks.aspx for more information.

OVERTIME & PAYCHECKS

- ▶ You must receive overtime pay at 1.5 times your regular pay rate for hours you work over 40 in a workweek (or over 55 if you work in agriculture—over 48 beginning January 1, 2025). Exceptions are limited.
- ▶ Daily overtime also applies in some industries including manufacturing establishments and seafood processing. Special overtime rules also apply to certain work contracted for by government agencies, public works projects, canneries and some hospital employees.
- ▶ Regular paydays are required by law. You must receive a paycheck at least every 35 days. Your employer must provide you with a detailed paystub.
- ▶ If you are fired or permanently laid off, you must get your last paycheck by the end of the next business day.
- ▶ If you quit with at least 48 hours' notice, you must get your last paycheck on your last day of employment. If you do not give 48 hours' notice, you must get your last paycheck within 5 business days or the next payday, whichever is first.

WORKPLACE MEETINGS

NOTICE TO EMPLOYEES REGARDING WORKPLACE MEETINGS

- Effective January 1, 2010, an employer or an employer's agent, representative or designee may not discharge, discipline or otherwise penalize or threaten to discharge, discipline or otherwise penalize or take any adverse employment action against an employee:
- (a) Who declines to attend or participate in an employer-sponsored meeting or communication with the employer or the agent, representative or designee of the employer if the primary purpose of the meeting or communication is to communicate the opinion of the employer about religious or political matters;
- (b) As a means of requiring an employee to attend a meeting or participate in communications described in paragraph (a) of this subsection; or
- (c) Because the employee, or a person acting on behalf of the employee, makes a good faith report, orally or in writing, of a violation or a suspected violation of this section. This paragraph does not apply if the employee knows that the report is false.
- An aggrieved employee may bring a civil action to enforce this section no later than 90 days after the date of the alleged violation in the circuit court of the judicial district where the violation is alleged to have occurred or where the principal office of the employer is located.
- Note: This law does not prohibit an employer from offering meetings, forums or other communications about religious or political matters for which attendance or participation is strictly voluntary.
- Revised 01/2010

OREGON SICK TIME LAW

All Oregon workers get protected sick time. If you work for an employer with 10 or more employees (6 or more if they have a location in Portland), you get paid sick time.

- ▶ Your employer must give you sick time. You get at least 1 hour of protected sick time for every 30 hours you work up to at least 40 hours a year.
- ▶ You can use sick time for many reasons including if you (or a family member) are sick, injured, experiencing mental illness, or need to visit the doctor. Also covered: bereavement, parental leave, and leave to care for a child whose school or place of care is closed for a public health emergency.
- ▶ Your employer must pay you your regular wage when you take sick time if they have 10 or more employees (6 or more if they have a location in Portland). Otherwise, your sick time is protected but unpaid.
- ▶ You can start taking protected sick time after you've worked for at least 90 days. Your employer must regularly let you know how much sick time you have earned. (At least every three months.)

EQUAL PAY LAW

Your employer must pay you the same as your coworkers doing similar work.

- ▶ It's illegal for your employer to pay you less than someone else because of your gender, race, veteran status, disability, age, color, religion, national origin (including language), marital status, sexual orientation, or pay history.
- ▶ Different pay may be allowed if there is system based on specific factors named in the law including one or more of the following: seniority, merit, a system that measures earnings by quantity or quality of production, workplace location, travel, education, training, or experience.
- ▶ You're also protected during the hiring process:
 - ▶ Employers cannot ask for your salary/pay history before they make an offer of employment
 - ▶ Employers cannot screen job applicants based on current or past salary/pay history
 - ▶ Employers cannot determine compensation for a job based on the pay history of a potential new employee (not including internal transfers)
- ▶ Your employer can't use pay cuts to make your pay equal with other employees.
- ▶ If you need to, you can file a complaint at oregon.gov/boli. You could get back pay and the pay difference you are owed going forward.

PAID LEAVE

Paid Leave Oregon | What you need to know

Paid Leave Oregon serves most employees in Oregon by providing paid leave for the birth, foster care placement, or adoption of a child, a serious illness of yours or a loved one, or if you or your child experience sexual assault, domestic violence, harassment, bias crimes, or stalking.

What benefits are provided through Paid Leave Oregon and who is eligible?
Employees in Oregon that have earned at least $1,000 in their base year may qualify for up to 12 weeks of paid family, medical or safe leave in a benefit year. While on leave, Paid Leave pays employees a percentage of their wages. Benefit amounts depend on what an employee earned in their base year. See the Paid Leave website for a definition of base year.

Who pays for Paid Leave Oregon?
Employees and employers contribute to Paid Leave Oregon through payroll taxes. Contributions are calculated as a percentage of wages and your employer will deduct your portion of the contribution rate from your paycheck.

When do I need to tell my employer about taking leave?
If your leave is foreseeable, you are required to give notice to your employer at least 30 days before starting paid family, medical or safe leave. If you do not give the required notice, Paid Leave Oregon may reduce your first weekly benefit by 25%.

How do I apply for Paid Leave?
If your employer participates in the state program, you can apply for leave with Paid Leave benefits online at francisco.oregon.gov or download a paper application at paidleave.oregon.gov. If The Oregon Employment Department (OED) denies your benefits, you can appeal the decision.

WORKPLACE ACCOMMODATIONS NOTICE _____ is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, religion, color, sex, age, national origin, disability, veteran status, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression or any other classification protected by law.

_____ will make reasonable accommodations for known physical or mental disabilities of an applicant or employee as well as known limitations related to pregnancy, childbirth or a related medical condition, such as lactation, unless the accommodation would cause an undue hardship. Among other possibilities, reasonable accommodations could include:

- Acquisition or modification of equipment or devices;
- More frequent or longer break periods or periodic rest;
- Assistance with manual labor
- A reasonable period of leave; or
- Modification of work schedules or job assignments.

Employees and job applicants have a right to be free from unlawful discrimination and retaliation.

Rev. February 2023

This includes discrimination because of pregnancy, childbirth and related medical conditions.

For this reason, _____ will not:

- Deny employment opportunities on the basis of a need for reasonable accommodation.
- Deny reasonable accommodation for known limitations, unless the accommodation would cause an undue hardship.
- Take an adverse employment action, discriminate or retaliate because the applicant or employee has inquired about, requested or used a reasonable accommodation.
- Require an applicant or an employee to accept an accommodation that is unnecessary.
- Require an employee to take family leave or any other leave, if the employee can make reasonable accommodation instead.

To request an accommodation or to discuss concerns or questions about this notice, please contact any one of our supervisors or _____ in the human resources department.

[Provide multiple ways for employees to reach out with requests or concerns.]

OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY AND HEALTH PROTECTION

IT'S THE LAW!

Know your rights

- > You have the right to notify your employer, Oregon OSHA, or both about workplace hazards. You may ask Oregon OSHA to keep your name confidential.
- > You have the right to refuse to perform a hazardous task that would expose you to imminent danger or serious physical harm and there is no reasonable alternative.
- > You have the right to request an Oregon OSHA inspection if you believe there are unsafe or unhealthy conditions in your workplace. You or your representative may participate in the inspection.
- > You have the right to report a work-related injury or illness, without being retaliated or discriminated against.
- > You have the right to see Oregon OSHA citations issued to your employer. Your employer must post the citations at the workplace. Your employer must correct workplace hazards by the date indicated on the citation, and must certify that these hazards have been reduced or eliminated.
- > You have the right to your work-related exposure records covered under Oregon OSHA's rules. This includes any OSHA medical records and personal sampling records.
- > You have the right to request your workplace injury and illness log, known as the "OSHA 300 log" and "OSHA 300A summary".
- > You have the right to know about hazardous substances used in your workplace.

You have the right to file a complaint with the Oregon Bureau of Labor and Industries (BOLI) within one year, or with federal OSHA within 30 days, of discrimination by your employer for making safety and health complaints or for exercising your rights under the Oregon Safe Employment Act.

The Oregon Safe Employment Act of 1973 provides job safety and health protection for workers through the promotion of safe and healthful working conditions throughout the state. The Oregon Occupational Safety and Health Division (Oregon OSHA) of the Department of Consumer and Business Services has the primary responsibility for administering the act. This includes the right to refuse work that would expose you to serious physical harm or imminent danger.

Oregon OSHA adopts occupational safety and health standards, and its trained safety and health compliance officers conduct workplace inspections to ensure compliance with the Oregon Safe Employment Act.

Anyone who wants to register a complaint about the administration of the Oregon Safe Employment Act can do so by contacting:

OSHA San Francisco Regional Office
San Francisco Federal Building
90 7th Street, Suite 2650
San Francisco, CA 94103
415-625-2547

Oregon OSHA has a staff of trained safety and health professionals available to work with businesses in all industries to improve workplace safety and health. Consultations and training opportunities are available at no charge to Oregon businesses by calling any of the phone numbers listed.

SEXUAL HARASSMENT + DOMESTIC VIOLENCE PROTECTIONS

Oregon laws protect your right to work free from harassment. They also require your employer to provide supports if you are a victim of domestic violence.

SEXUAL HARASSMENT

- ▶ You have the right to a workplace free from harassment, discrimination, and sexual assault. Your employer must have a policy to reduce and prevent these violations and make it available to employees within the workplace.
- ▶ Sexual harassment can look like unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, or conduct of a sexual nature (verbal, physical, or visual), that is directed toward an individual. It can also include unwanted sexual conduct that occurs through digital or electronic communications.
- ▶ It can also include conduct that is not sexual but is gender-related. Sexual harassment can be targeted toward someone of the same or different sex or gender.
- ▶ Discrimination because of race, color, sex, sexual orientation, national origin, religion, marital status, uniformed service, disability, or age is illegal.

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE PROTECTIONS

- ▶ If you experience domestic violence, harassment, sexual assault, bias crime, or stalking (or if you are a parent or guardian of a victim), your employer must make reasonable changes to support your safety.
- ▶ These changes might include: a transfer, reassignment, modified schedule, unpaid leave, changed work phone number, changed work station, installed lock, new safety procedure, or other adjustment after threatened or actual events.
- ▶ You can also take protected leave to find legal or law enforcement assistance, get medical treatment for injuries or mental health support, move or change your living situation, and more.
- ▶ Your employer must keep all documents and information confidential.
- ▶ You can't be fired, suspended, retaliated or discriminated against in any way because you are a victim.
